Monthly Theme:

Choosing Christ Every Day

Monthly Scripture:

“And we talk of Christ, we rejoice in Christ, we preach of Christ, we prophesy of Christ, and we write according to our prophecies, that our children may know to what source they may look for a remission of their sins.”

2 Nephi 25:26

PRESIDENCY MESSAGE:

When I think about daily needs, there are, of course, the necessities like food and water that are pretty vital. And then there are perhaps some less important things, but, for me, I love seeing the sun every day and relaxing for a few minutes while reading a good book if I can. Everyone's daily needs vary from person to person and might even change from day to day or season to season. What is constant for everyone is the need for daily spiritual connection. Do we count connecting to the Spirit as a daily “need”? President Nelson has told us that it is vital for our spiritual survival in these latter days to connect with the Spirit every day. We are blessed with an abundance of ways to connect with the Spirit, some just one click away with the touch of a button. A few examples are listening to uplifting music, reading inspiring stories and testimonies, studying the scriptures and General Conference talks, ministering to others, and attending the temple. When we connect to the Spirit, we connect to Christ, for the Spirit testifies of Christ. All avenues lead to, testify of, and confirm the redeeming role of Christ in our lives. I hope we can all choose to make connecting to Christ daily a need and feel the love and peace that can be ours when we do so. - Rachel Plumhof
